PDP/GMP Scholarships 2019

- upon receipt of the nominations within the deadline, the CESC (i.e. an appointed sub-committee) will evaluate the eligibility of the candidates (residence in the EMEA Region, CHS history/aspirations, recommendation/referral, motivational letter); the candidates shall be informed about the outcome of their applications by 14 April 2019
- the PDP scholarship recipients will then be asked to select the course to be financed by the scholarship; the GMP scholarship recipient will be asked to enroll in the program (the scholarship will be deducted from the regular fee) taking place in either June 2019 or January 2020

How is the scholarship scheme funded?

- as is done every year, the scheme has been proposed by the CESC and approved by the membership attending the CHS EMEA Regional Meeting Ljubljana 2018
- the scholarships are financed by the Deiv Salutskij EMEA Scholarship Fund; the Fund receives proceeds from the EMEA Region's scholarship auctions as well as direct gifts from EMEA Chapters, alumni and other supporters
